Data Driven Research: From Variables to Insights
Hands on training with EPWRF India Time Series
(EPWRF ITS) database

Date	: 31 st July, 2026
Venue	: Library, Main Building
Organizing Unit/Agency	: Knowledge Resource Centre, Nagindas Khandwala College
Number of Participants	: 19
Activity	: The Knowledge Resource Centre and Department of Economics, Nagindas Khandwala College, organised a hands-on training workshop titled “Data-driven Research: From Variables to Insights – Hands on training with EPWRF India Time Series (EPWRF ITS) database” on 31st July 2026 at 11:45 AM. The programme was conducted at the Cyber Space, Library 4th Floor, Nagindas Khandwala College, Malad (W), Mumbai. A total of 19 participants attended the session. Dr. Bipin Deodhar, Deputy Director, EPWRF, was the resource person. The workshop focused on developing participants’ understanding of data-driven research through practical exposure to the EPWRF India Time Series (EPWRF ITS) database. The session highlighted the database’s coverage and its relevance for research involving variables and time-series data. Participants were introduced to the breadth of the database, including 36 modules containing state-wise data, 5 modules providing district-wise data, 4 modules presenting firm-level data, and 23 modules covering data for the rural sector. The hands-on orientation helped participants understand how structured datasets can be explored and used to support evidence-based academic research and analysis.
